 Mrs Black

My name's Sam. Rosie is my neighbour. Last Saturday she went to the park. I went shopping with Mum, but later I went to the park to meet her.

We played tennis in the park with Rosie's brother Jake. Jake hit the ball over the wall into Mrs Black's garden. Mrs Black doesn't like children. She never gives them back their tennis balls.

We didn't want to see Mrs Black. So Rosie climbed over the wall and jumped into the garden. Then she saw a thief. She watched him. He opened a window and climbed into the house.

Rosie thought quickly. She called the police on her mobile phone. They arrived in a police car. They arrested the thief.

Mrs Black invited Rosie into the house. She said thank you to her and she gave her a drink and some biscuits. Then she gave Rosie her tennis ball – and a big bag of other tennis balls too!

1 Read the article. Answer the questions.

- 1 What did Eva win?
- 2 Where does Eva find her ideas?
- 3 Where is Eva going to go?

Oxford Voice: Eva, when did you start making videos?

Eva: I started about three years ago. My mobile phone has a video camera and I started making mini films with it.

Oxford Voice: How do you think of an idea for a film?

Eva: Well, I often find ideas in newspapers. Then I talk to my friends and we invent the story together.

Oxford Voice: Were you surprised to win the award?

Eva: Yes, I was - very! And now I'm very excited.

The winner is ... Eva Taylor!

The Oxford Voice interviewed Eva Taylor, the winner of this year's Student Video competition. The award is for the best video made by students. Eva and her team made a short film of a detective story. They wrote the story and planned the film. They used their friends as actors and they made the film at their homes and in their gardens. The famous actor Christine Moore said, 'Eva worked very hard and the film is fantastic!'

Oxford Voice: Why?

Eva: Because the prize is a trip to Hollywood for me and the team. We're going to go in a jumbo jet - first class! Then we're going to visit the most important studios. We're going to watch a film by my favourite director, Billy Benson. I think he's amazing.

Oxford Voice: That's great. Congratulations, and have a good time!
