

A RELATIVE DIFFERENCE KEY

1.-

A) FALSE: "This similarity has led chimp expert Dr. Jane Goodall to call for human rights to be extended to chimpanzees."

B) FALSE: "development and destruction of their natural habitats, along with commercial hunting for food, have cut their numbers from two million chimpanzees at the turn of the last century to less than one tenth of that now."

2.-

A) Yes, there are not only paleontological pieces of evidence which show the existence of a great diversity of ape-like, human-like creatures millions years ago, but also genetic similarities that prove of our common ancestry.

B) The most important distinction has been the development of language which has had important consequences in our human evolution.

3.-

A) connection: link

B) part of the skeleton which encloses the brain: skull

C) jump ahead: leap forward

D) apparently: seemingly

4.-

A) If you don't ask him a question, he won't speak to you.

B) She told me that I had to do it at once.

C) The exercise is too difficult for us to do.

D) The crime is being investigated by some policemen.

5.-

YOUR OWN WORDS.