

Matter can change shape and state and we call this a physical change matter is all around us the three states of matter are solid , liquid and gas matter is everything that we see , touch, taste, or smell that has mass and volume matter

earth and the solar system is made of matter

Earth is made of matter