Unit 3 – Grammar

	No one is using the multimedia room at the moment.
2.	John ought to give his paintings to the museum. (x2)
3.	Nobody's going to build any bridges here.
1.	My favourite rock and roll musician used to sing that song long ago.
5.	Dan won't return the book to the library.
3.	Sharon hasn't given the news to Paul yet. (x2)
7.	By 10 o'clock, the mechanic had repaired the car.
3.	Everyone knows the crazy women in the other side of the road.
9.	People don't believe her story.
10	. Somebody built the statue last year.
11
11.	. Max looks after the baby every weekend.
Us	. Max looks after the baby every weekend.
Us	. Max looks after the baby every weekend. se the passive form in both possible ways.
Us 1.	. Max looks after the baby every weekend. se the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday.
Us 1.	. Max looks after the baby every weekend. se the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday.
Js 1. 2.	. Max looks after the baby every weekend. se the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday.
Us 1. 2.	Max looks after the baby every weekend. See the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday. People think that money is the most important thing in life.
Us 1. 2.	Max looks after the baby every weekend. See the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday. People think that money is the most important thing in life.
Us 1. 2.	Max looks after the baby every weekend. See the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday. People think that money is the most important thing in life. They thought that he was an artist.
1. 2. 3.	Max looks after the baby every weekend. See the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday. People think that money is the most important thing in life. They thought that he was an artist. They think I was born in Italy.
Us 1. 2. 3.	Max looks after the baby every weekend. See the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday. People think that money is the most important thing in life. They thought that he was an artist. They think I was born in Italy.
1. 2. 3.	Max looks after the baby every weekend. See the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday. People think that money is the most important thing in life. They thought that he was an artist. They think I was born in Italy.
1. 2. 3.	Max looks after the baby every weekend. See the passive form in both possible ways. People say that the president will arrive on Monday. People think that money is the most important thing in life. They thought that he was an artist. They think I was born in Italy. People feared that the criminals escaped.

	8.	People say he played cards very well.
	9.	People supposed he was the best driver.
	10.	Everyone thinks that she sent the letter.
	11.	Everyone knows that she can't read.
	12.	People believe that Paul was arrested by the police.
3	Re	write the sentences in the correct active form.
		Tim is going to be punished by his mum.
	2.	Some of the stories were written by a famous author.
	3.	The dog must be walked after dinner.
	4.	Paul hasn't been examined by the doctor yet.
4	Со	implete the sentences with the verbs in brackets. Use the correct active or passive form.
		The film (show) in ten different countries this week.
	2.	Tomorrow, the weather (be) cold and snowy.
	3.	The sales (advertise) in the newspaper every week.
	4.	We (not do) our homework yesterday.
5	Re	write the sentences. Use the causative form.
	1.	You need to fix this lamp.
		You should
	2.	She asked the maid to clean her room.
	_	She
	3.	We'll tell the technician to check the computer. We
	1	They are adding a room on to Janet's house.
	₹.	Janet
6	Со	mplete with the verbs in brackets. Use the correct active or passive form. There may be more than one answer.
	Tha	anks to an online bookshop called Better World Books, thousands of people (1)(give) the chance to help the world while enjoying a goo	od read. Better World Books is a business whose profits (2) gin), the founders (4) (have) the idea of selling second-hand books online. They decided that the money from the book sales ٠,
		ion (7)
		(receive) from libraries that have too many copies of the same book. Some books (9) (give) to Better World bks by retail bookshops that don't want to cause pollution by throwing away unwanted books. The end result is the same: if you buy a book from Better rld Books, your money (10)

Unit 3 – Vocabulary

- 1 Choose the correct answer.
 - 1. If you want a shop owner to lower the cost of an item, you often have to bargain over the price / pick it up late / find designer brands.
 - 2. I pay less money at the shop than John does because I take it back / pay for it / get a discount.
 - 3. The television isn't new. I bought it imitation / brand-new / second-hand.
 - 4. You don't have to pay for it all at once. You can pay in instalments / return purchases / shop around.
 - 5. Have you got any shoes that are less expensive? I can't afford / check out / try on 100 euros.
 - 6. Mr Smith has just bought a rip-off / brand-new / special offer car. His previous car was quite old.

7.	If you don't like the book, to the library.	a. take it back	b. pick out	c.try on
8.	This month's is a 30 per cent discount on all English books.	a. brand-name	b. special offer	c. rip-off
9.	You aren't a clever if you spend more than you earn.	a. discount	b. imitation	c. consumer
10	I owe John 200 euros, but that isn't my only \dots	a. debt	b. purchase	c. refund
11.	When you've got a small budget, it's good to look for	a. rip-offs	b. bargains	c. designer brands

Write a sentence that follows the first sentence. Use the words: pick out • live on a budget • get a refund • shop around
 I never go to just one shop when I am making a big purchase.
 I can't believe they sold me a television that doesn't work!
 I need help choosing a gift.
 I need to spend my money more carefully.
 When do people do the following things? Write a sentence for each.
 buy second-hand items
 use a credit card
 return purchases
 take back what they said to someone

.....