

1. REWRITE THE FOLLOWING SENTENCES USING MODAL VERBS.

- It's prohibited / it's forbidden to stick posters.

You...

- I'm certain / I'm sure she is in London.

She ...

- It's not necessary to bring cakes.

You...

- It was not necessary to bring cakes.

You ...

- It's not an obligation to go.

You...

- It was not an obligation for her to do the work.

She...

- It's not an obligation to enter/ You are not obliged to enter.

You...

- I'm certain / I'm sure that Joe is lying.

Joe...

- It's prohibited to smoke in this area.

You ...

- It's important that you listen carefully.

You ...

- I'm sure he isn't working.

He ...

- It's not necessary for her to wear elegant clothes

She...

- She wasn't able to speak French at the age of 7.

She...

- I'm sure that she went to London.

She ...

- Perhaps he left the shop.

He ...

- It's impossible that he bought that car.

He ...

17. *It's a pity you didn't phone!

You...

18. It's possible that Eva is ill

Eva...

19. There's a possibility that they will pass the exams.

They...

20. It's a pity you didn't make the Cake

You...

21. I bet she got the job

She ...

22. Maybe they suggested that

They...

23. There's no way she did that!

She...