

REPHRASING ON REPORTED SPEECH (I)

1.she couldn't live on her basic salary.
2.he was going away the following day.
3.she would drive Mary to the airport that night.
4.she could keep that coat because he wasn't cold.
5.he hadn't stolen the money .
6.they had gone to the cinema the (previous) week (before).
7.the sales were starting the following day.
8.she wouldn't do the essay then.
9.he had done a terrible mistake.
10.why he/she was so happy.
11.what I /she/he was doing that night.
12.how old I was.
13.if I had seen the TV news the day before.
14.if I had been reading that book.
15.if I /she/he wanted to go to the cinema.
16. (me) if I would write to her.
17.to turn the TV off immediately.
18.not to touch that CD.
19.to put the book on her/his table.
20.not to write on the tables.

REPHRASING ON REPORTED SPEECH (II)

1.he liked his workmates.
2.she wouldn't have time to finish the Science project that day.
3.he couldn't get home on his own.
4.they / we were doing a good job.
5.he would visit New Zealand the following year.
6.she hadn't seen Paul that morning.
7.they had to go to the hospital then/ at that moment.
8.they had been there since that morning.
9.she had to work the following Saturday.
10.solar energy could improve
11.one year before Nancy and he had decided to exchange roles.
12. then he understood his children better and that they were getting along quite well.
13.Katy was giving a party to all her friends that weekend.
14.if they were / she/he was going to the disco that night.
15.if he always came/ went to that bar.
16.where I/she/he had bought that cool t-shirt.
17.why they wanted the latest
18.when he did his homework.
19.to go to his bedroom immediately.
20.not to leave the door open / Carol asked him not to leave the door open.