

Bv

HISTORY

- Bee Gees was a British band, whose formal artistic career began in Australia in 1958, their style was pop music. Formed by brothers Barry, Robin and Maurice Gibb in the 1960s, it is among the most important of the genre, with more than 40 years of uninterrupted musical activity.
- In the 1960s and 1970s, they were an inseparable part of the world music scene, especially with disco fever, by producer Robert Stigwood. In the 1980s they devoted themselves to collaborating with other artists and later returned to their studies.
- The band ceased its activity in 2003 with the death of the youngest of the brothers, Maurice Gibb. Survivors Barry and Robin then announced that the Bee Gees name would no longer be used in presentations

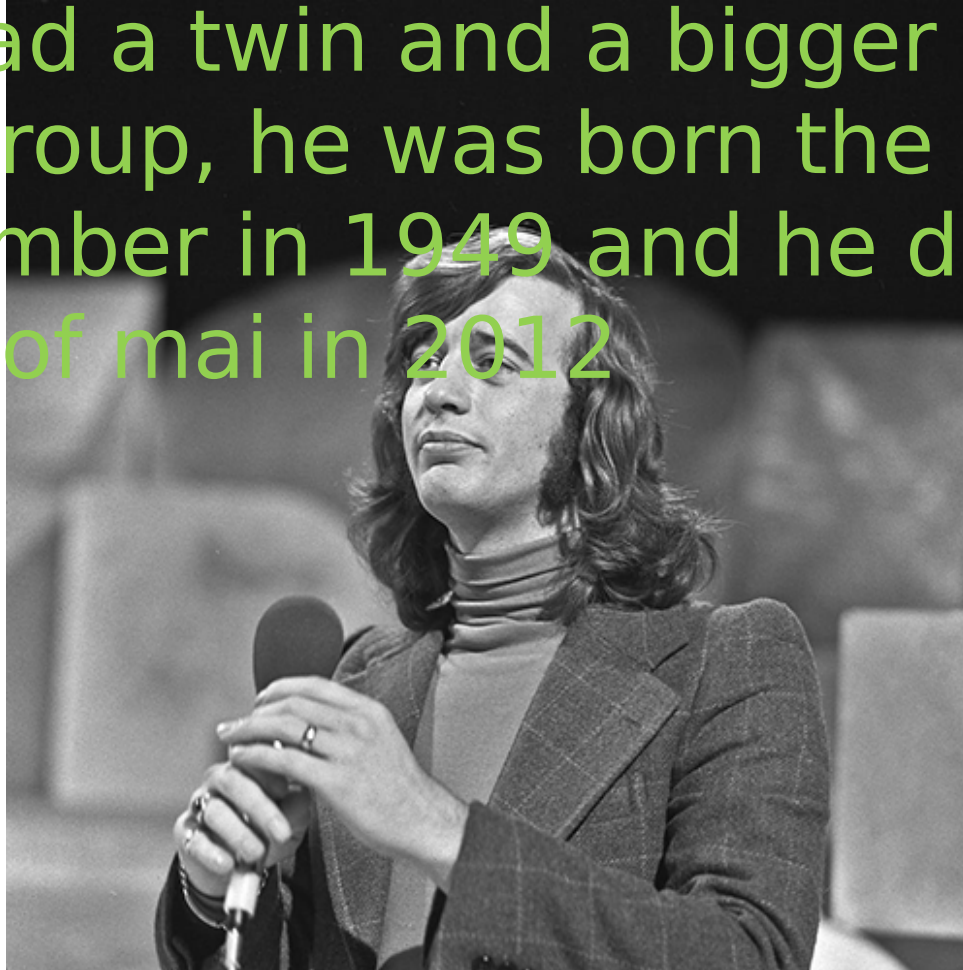

BARRY GIBB

- He is the biggest of the brothers Gibb he was born the 1st of september in 1946 and he stills alive.
- He has got one son stive Gibb
- He is considered the most succesfull composer with paul Mcartney

ROBIN GIBB

- He had a twin and a bigger brother in the group, he was born the 22th of december in 1949 and he died the 20th of mai in 2012

MAURICE GIBB

- He was the twin of Robin, he was born the 22th of december in 1949 and he died the 12th of january in 2003

MOST IMPORTANT SONGS OF BEE GEES

- Night fever
- How deep is your love
- Staying alive
- Tragedy
- To love somebody
- You should be dancing
- First of may

ANDY GIBB

- He was born the 5th of march in 1958, he was the smallest of the brothers Gibb.
- He was the idol of alot of people and hes union to the Bee Gees was very called but there was a lot of diference betwhen he and hes brothers, so he continues hes carrer alone. He died only with 30 year old

