

Malinda Block

Presents it Victoria Casal Nova.

A decorative border of brown leaves and vines surrounds the entire page. The border is composed of small, detailed leaves and scrolling vines that form a rectangular frame with rounded corners.

Table of contents

01

Sentence

02

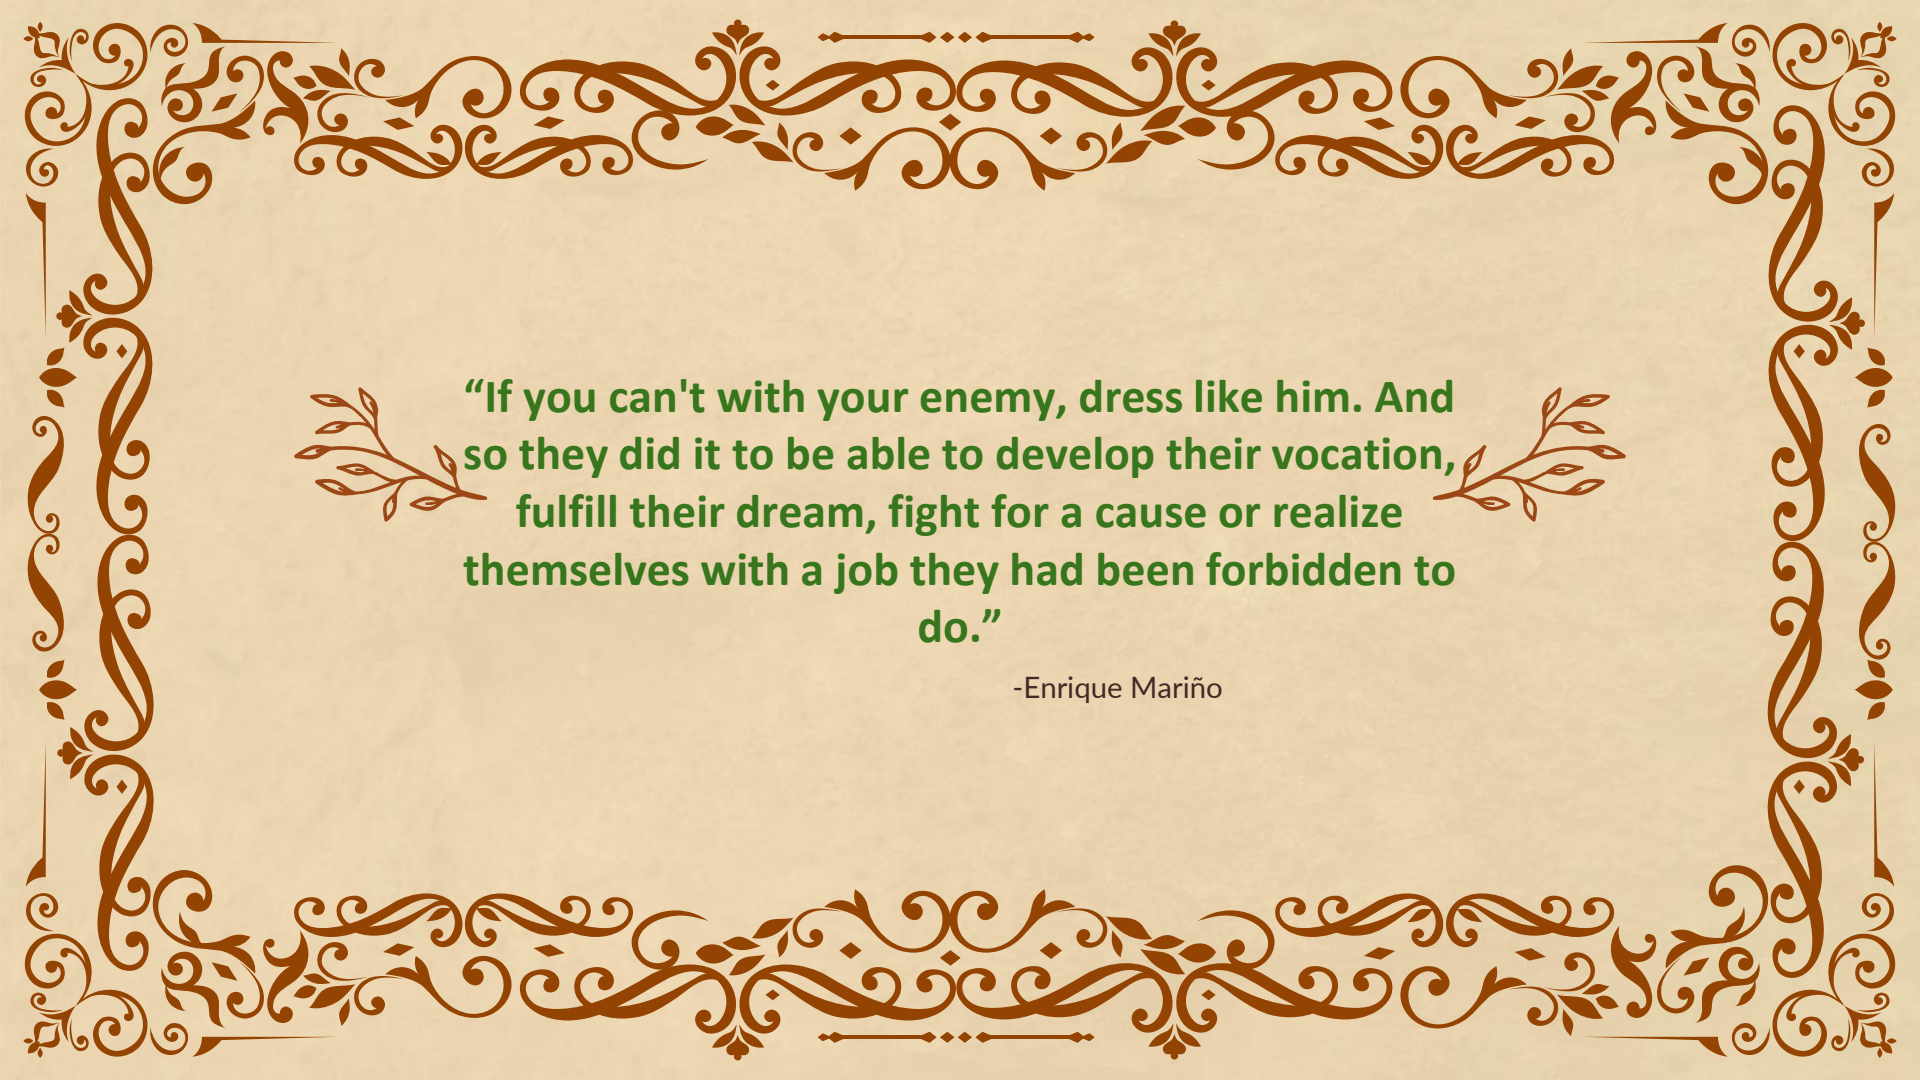

Biography

03

History

04

End of it all

“If you can't with your enemy, dress like him. And so they did it to be able to develop their vocation, fulfill their dream, fight for a cause or realize themselves with a job they had been forbidden to do.”

-Enrique Mariño

02

Biography

She's born on March 10, 1839 in North Carolina and died on March 9 in 1901 or 1903, those last dates are doubtful. They're simple

- From her adolescence she showed revolutionary character, marrying Keith Blacklock, a member of a family rival to hers.

03

History

When Malinda Blalock's husband was called up in the American Civil War, she refused to let him go alone and did not hesitate to dress as a man and his identity was never revealed.

Their registration papers are one of the few that are preserved of women soldiers in the civil war. Over time, the couple defected from the army.

Thanks!

CREDITS: This presentation template was created by Slidesgo, including icons by Flaticon, and infographics & images by Freepik