AGE + WORK

My grandmother died in 2007, which means that she would now be 84 years old. My grandmother had to do many works: she worked in the field, in the sea, selling farm items, etc.

HER MARRIAGE

She had met my grandfather, called Jose Docampo Táboas, when she was 19 years old, in a dance of Redondela, a performance very famous of Redondela, the “Coca’s Party”. With him, he had two daughters, my mother, called Beatriz Docampo Rivas, and my godmother, called Maricielo Docampo Rivas.

PERSONALITY

My grandmother was very happy, positive and a to very restless. She loved help people in any labor, but, especially, in the farm tasks, also, she was very metodic person, and very organized.

HOBBIES

My grandmother didn't have a lot of hobbies, because in her time there was not a lot of time to enjoy. She loved to much dance, because she goes every end week to the place to dance. Also, she loved cooking, especially stews.
