

Adverbs of frequency

- 7  Listen and repeat. Translate the adverbs of frequency in your notebook.

- 8 Complete the sentences. Use the adverbs of frequency to make sentences about you.

- I watch TV before school.
- I do my homework.
- I go to bed before eleven o'clock.
- I speak English in my English class.
- I study on Saturdays.
- I get up early on Sundays.

- 9 Write five sentences. Use the words in the chart.

My sister usually has cereal for breakfast.

My	mum		goes to bed early.
	dad	always	watches TV at school.
	brother	usually	gets up late.
	sister	often	has cereal for breakfast.
	friend	sometimes	plays football at school.
	teacher	never	speaks English.
	dog		has a shower in the morning.

Pronouns and possessive adjectives

- 10 Copy and complete the chart. Use the words in the box.

her our your their its his

Subject pronoun	Possessive adjective
I	my
you	your
he	(1)
she	(2)
it	(3)
we	(4)
you	(5)
they	(6)

- 11 Choose the correct words. Write sentences.

I / my always do I / my homework.

I always do my homework.

- You / Your sometimes have lunch at you / your friend's house.
- He / His never practises he / his English.
- She / Her sometimes does she / her homework after school.
- We / Our study with we / our friends.
- They / Their play football with they / their dogs.
- She / Her often watches TV with she / her friend.

- 12 Complete the sentences. Use the correct possessive adjective.

We always listen to our teacher.

- Lucy often has lunch with friends.
- I live with mum and dad.
- Sara and I sometimes do homework on the bus.
- 'Have you got book?'
'Yes, I have.'
- 'Who's that boy with Lucy?'
'..... name's Ben.'
- Mike and Tracy like French teacher.