

1st ESO TASKS

GRAMMAR

By following the link above (ctrl+click on the word GRAMMAR) you'll get to exercises on different grammar points: adverbs of frequency, conjunctions, countable and uncountable nouns, have got, personal pronouns and possessives, prepositions of time, present continuous, present simple, question words, the definite article, there is/are and It, this/that/these/those, To be-present and past.

For each topic there is first, a short video then, grammar explanation and last, exercises you can do online or download and print. You can choose. You can even download the transcription of the video.

LISTENING

By following the link above (ctrl+click on the word LISTENING) you'll get to listening exercises on different topics, You can choose which one to do and the order. After the audio, there is always exercises you can do online or download and print. You can even download the audio and its transcription.

READING

By following the link above (ctrl+click on the word READING) you'll get to reading exercises on different topics, You can choose which one to do and the order. After the text there is always exercises you can do online or download and print.

After all the exercises, you'll see there is a discussion forum, where teenagers like you, from all over the world, exchange personal information and experiences. You can just read people's comments or you can participate in the discussion. WE ENCOURAGE YOU ALL TO DO SO. If you are interested in joining any of the discussions, you'll have to register.