

SB EXERCISES (PAGES 124 -127)

CULTURE KIT. TEENS IN ENGLAND (PAGE 124)

1. False (They go to school from 8.45 to 3.30)
2. True (...the students wear school uniforms...)
3. False (...and they have got a lot of homework.)
4. False (Teens in England...play computer games...)
5. True (On Sundays, families have a traditional British lunch)

CULTURE KIT. TRADITIONAL IRISH FOOD (PAGE 125)

1. Yes, they are. We know because the traditional breakfast, lunch and dinner contain potatoes.
2. The traditional Irish breakfast has got bacon in it.
3. They are sausages and potatoes.
4. In an Irish stew there is meat and there are potatoes, carrots, onions and herbs too.

CULTURE KIT. ANIMAL HABITS (PAGE 126)

1. The tawny owl can fly.
2. The tawny owl sleeps in trees.
3. The kiwi hasn't got good eyes.
4. The hippo sleeps in water.
5. The kiwi has got a good nose.
6. The hippo isn't a bird.

La palabra kiwi puede referirse a tres cosas distintas:

- Kiwi se le llama de manera informal a una persona originaria de Nueva Zelanda.
- Se puede referir también al ave representativa de Nueva Zelanda (kiwi bird)
- Es también una fruta (kiwifruit)

CULTURE KIT. THE BRITISH MUSEUM (PAGE 127)

Name of museum:	The British Museum
Type of museum:	Public museum of human history and culture
Year museum opens:	1759 (15 th January)
Original objects from:	Sir Hans Sloane collection
Number of original objects:	Over 71,000
Number of objects today:	More than seven million
Price of visit today:	Free (you don't have to pay)